MEDICINAL.

HEART FAILURE

Every day adds to the list of deaths attributed to heart failure. If the truth were told the bulk of these deaths might be written down as due to stomach failure. For it is in the failure of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition that "weak heart," "weak lungs," "weak nerves" and other forms of physical deterioration having their beginning. The man whose stomach is sound, who can digest and assimilate the food he eats, and so keep each organ of the body well nourished, is the man who is least liable to collapse under the sudden weakness of some vital organ.

The preservation of health which follows the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, is chiefly due to the fact that it perfectly and permanently cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, purifies the blood and increases the blood supply of the body. Weak people will find in this medicine a sure means of strength.

"I was under doctors' care for quite a time," writes Mr. J. P. Kidd, of Farmington, Wayne Co., Ky. "They had almost given me up, and my suffering was very great. My pulse was weak, breath short and I had severe pains in back, head and legs. Physical palpitation of heart, and for eleven months I was not able to do a day's work. I purchased five bottles of Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and by the time the fifth bottle was gone I was a well man."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate the liver.

SINGLE TAX.

For sometime past Alexandrians have been carrying on a rather animated discussion as to how best to build up the city. And as no one has as yet suggested a means which meets with the approval of any considerable number of people, I desire to offer to the people of Alexandria through your paper a brief outline of what is commonly called the single tax, or to speak more accurately the single taxation of land values and which I firmly believe to be the only means of building up his or any other community.

What we who call ourselves single taxers propose is to abolish all taxes of whatever form that fall upon industry and to collect all government (local, state and federal) revenues from a single tax upon the value of land irrespective of the value of the improvements in or on it. We would therefore abolish all tariff taxes, all license, all taxes upon personal property and the taxes that fall upon the improvements of land and leave only the tax which now falls upon the value of the bare land. This tax we would increase until it provided sufficient revenue with which to pay all governmental expenses.

Now let us see what effect this would have on the prosperity of a community. One of the first things a city needs if it ever expects to be of any importance is manufactures. And as anything that increases the cost of manufacturing decreases the number of manufacturers, therefore if it can be proven that our present system of taxation does increase the cost of manufacturing it is a conclusive argument against it. And our present system of taxation does that very thing. Our tariff imposes a duty upon raw timber, iron, tin, wool and coal, and this means that the cost of manufacturing articles out of wood, iron, tin or wool is greater than it would be if these duties were abolished. A tariff tax of 60 cts. per ton on coal means that in every form of industry in which coal is used more capital is required. It means that transportation is more expensive and this is a great detriment to any industry. Likewise, a license or a local tax upon buildings increases the cost of the manufacturing business. These taxes that increase the cost of manufacturing and therefore increase the amount of capital required to go into that business would be abolished if the single tax were adopted.

The second sign of progress in a town is building going on on a large scale. The single tax would promote building in two ways: 1st, By not taxing buildings, and 2nd, by taxing unused land the same as used land of like value. Under our present system of taxation we see side by side two lots of equal value. The holder of one puts a house upon it and we increase his taxes for so doing. We make him pay more taxes because he has increased the wealth of the community and gives employment to a large force of men. The other man who did nothing whatever to increase the wealth and prosperity of the city pays no more taxes than before. We fine the one because he increases the wealth and prosperity of the community, while the other who holds the land idle neither using it himself nor allowing anyone else to use it we reward. Is this fair? Is it just? Is it in accord with democratic institutions? Under the single tax both of these men would be taxed alike and if they put up buildings costing thousands of dollars and employ hundreds of men their taxes will not be increased. It is easy to see that to tax a man just as much for holding a piece of ground idle as for using it would compel him to use it himself or get out of the way so that some one else could. This would greatly increase building and consequently the manufacture of building material.

To increase the manufacturing and building industries of a community would give employment to thousands of men, stimulate trade in all its branches and in fact increase and promote the general prosperity of the community.

And if Alexandria would become one of the foremost cities of the State and eventually the south, she should adopt the single tax as soon as it is possible to do so. H. T. C.
